James,

As stated in the MLB privilege log produced on Friday, MLB_F0000351B is an email from Jennifer McAleese to John McAleese. Jennifer's email contains a cut and pasted section from a communication with Mark Carlson (including the Facebook, Twitter, and Hagens Berman Logos), though no one from Hagens Berman otherwise participated in that email thread. The privilege log will be updated to state the underlying attorney client privilege.

Best regards,

Ryan

Ryan:

Morgan Lewis & Bockius indicated on its list that MLB_F 352-354 are attachments to the email thread MLB_F 351. The Facebook log, Twitter logo and Hagens Berman logo typically appear in emails sent from your firm. Please advise whether any email(s) sent to or received from your firm is/are part of the email thread MLB_F 351.

Best regards,

Jim

James,

These are email artifacts and represent the images that sometimes appear at the bottom of an email in the signature line. One is a Facebook logo, one is a Twitter log, and one is the Hagens Berman logo. We didn't produce or log them because they aren't responsive.

Best regards,

Ryan

Mark/Ryan:

We write regarding the MLB_F production and corresponding Morgan Lewis & Bockius privilege log.

You did not log or produce MLB_F 352-354. Could you please identify what those documents are?

Thank you,

Jim
